

PLAIN QUAKERS

ON HUMAN FOLLY

Asks the most important question you'll ever have to answer
'What did you do when you realised greed was killing the world?'

As they reflect on slavery abolitionist John Woolman's 1772 walk from London to York, and the business affairs of Samuel Galton, Quaker gunsmith, two mature contemporary gents resolutely rise to the challenge of the millennium: saving the planet.

PLAIN QUAKERS

A non profit making theatrical partnership formed in 2007 by Mike Casey and Arthur Pritchard which aims to raise awareness of Quaker traditions and concerns. It is a project of High Flatts Quaker Meeting and receives financial support from the Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust and Quaker Outreach in Yorkshire. From September On Human Folly will tour to meetings in Yorkshire and other parts of the country.

PERFORMANCE DETAILS

Friday 24th October 2008 at 7.30 p.m. Performances last 1 hour.

Assembly Hall, Friends' School Lisburn followed by refreshments in Lisburn Meeting House.

Proceeds to Quaker Service.

Tickets £5.00 at the door or in advance from Ainda Address

Tel: 90 682347

'Thought provoking and divisive'